The Common Sector Competencies model groups competencies based on needs identified across all sectors of the workforce.

Fundamental core competencies are basic, entry-level skills candidates must have for hiring consideration.

Advanced leader competencies are necessary for advancement or management consideration.

Competencies considered price of admission are skills important across all areas and are easier to develop through training.

Competencies in the competitive edge group are less intuitive, more difficult to develop and are in short supply.

As a result, competencies in the yellow quadrant are easier to fulfill, while those in the blue quadrant are more difficult.

DEFINITIONS

The Common Sector Competencies model groups competencies based on needs identified across all sectors of the workforce.

Fundamental core competencies are basic, entry-level skills candidates must have for hiring consideration.

Advanced leader competencies are necessary for advancement or management consideration.

Competencies considered price of admission are skills important across all areas and are easier to develop through training.

Competencies in the competitive edge group are less intuitive, more difficult to develop and are in short supply.

As a result, competencies in the yellow quadrant are easier to fulfill, while those in the blue quadrant are more difficult.